polled there. If this vote is counted Hayes' majority in that county will be 460, and it majority in that county will be 469, and it elects one Republican Senator. But if thrown out Hayes' majority in that county will be 723, and both Republican Senators elected. In either case a Republican Representative is elected, which gives the Senator to the Republicans by two majority, and the House by twelve majority. Hayes majority will probably now be over four thousand.
